6. [REDACTED] Met with Kenneth Sprinkle, Clerk and Staff Director, House Appropriations Committee, provided a list of security clearances on members of the Committee staff and discussed with him some of the procedures involved in staff clearances. Mr. Sprinkle expressed his appreciation for the listing and advised it was something he has needed for some time. Mr. Sprinkle indicated the listing provided completely satisfies his present needs as far as Agency assistance is concerned.

7. [REDACTED] FE Division, called concerning a call he had received from Ed Masters, State Department. It appears that Norman Cornish, of the Moss Subcommittee of House Government Operations Committee staff, has requested a file involving an Export/Import Bank transaction. This file contains an airgram which quotes extensively from a classified CIA report. [REDACTED] before indicating to the State Department that we had no objection to this document being made available to the Subcommittee, he wanted to check this matter with us. It was agreed that this Office would discuss this further with Alex Schnee, State Department Congressional Relations staff.

8. [REDACTED] Hand carried to Colonel Lindjord, staff of the Subcommittee on National Security and International Operations, a blind memo prepared by OCI entitled "The Decision to Invade Czechoslovakia: The Role of the Soviet Military Leaders." This was made available to Lindjord in connection with the work he and Dorothy Fcsdick are doing for Senator Jackson in connection with his participation in the North Atlantic Assembly meeting in Brussels. Lindjord took this occasion to ask if I would check on the accuracy of a statement which they were planning to use in Senator Jackson's remarks to the effect that Soviet military personnel were present in both Egypt and Syria. I told Lindjord that I was quite sure this was accurate but I would check and be back in touch with him.
